SPRUILL
EDUCATION

Supply List

Drawing & Painting, All Mediums
Instructor: Kristin Compton
kristinwritingbadly@gmail.com

CLASS PHILOSOPHY: Create art in whatever medium you want! If you want to work in acrylics every time, that's fine. If you want to paint oils one week and watercolors the next, that's fine too! You choose your medium in this class.

BRUSHES*: For whatever medium of paint you are using, have one the following or whatever you already have:*
One 1" flat brush
One # 2 round brush
One # 6 round brush
One # 12 round brush

SUPPORTS*: Bring in the support, paper, canvas, or board that's appropriate to your chosen medium.*

PAINTS*: Please buy the best paint that you can afford- better quality paints make for better paintings. Artist grade paints are what to look for. You can use a variety of different brands. Also feel free to get any other colors that speak to you. You can also just pick up a ready-made set. Also have any mediums/cleaners/odorless turpentine you need for your paints. If you are buying acrylic paint,* do not buy Golden Open Acrylic paint. Any other paint, including regular Golden is perfectly fine.

Basic Colors You Should Have*: Alizarin Crimson, Cadmium Red, Cadmium Yellow, Lemon Yellow, Ultramarine Blue, Cerulean Blue, Burnt Umber, Burnt Sienna, Titanium White, Bone Black*

Fun Colors*: Quidacridone Red, Cadmium Orange, Hansa Yellow, Pthalo Green, Sap Green, Cobalt Blue, Pthalo Blue, Dioxazine Violet, Quidacridone Violet*

PASTELS*: Bring whatever colors or sets you have, just make sure you have a wide range of values.*

DRAWING MATERIALS:
Pens, ink
Pencils
Charcoal
Markers
Oils Pastels
Whatever you want to use!

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS:
One large water container (large multi-serve yogurt containers are awesome)
Paper towels- I love Viva Signature Cloth
#2B Pencils
Plastic Paint Palette
Erasers
Painter's Tape or Masking tape
White Gel Pen
Small Spray Bottle

If you have any questions about the supply-list please email me.

Good Stores/Websites
Dick Blick, Jerry's Artarama, Cheap Joe's, Binders, Amazon