What students are responsible to bring to class:

You may empty junk drawers in your home, clear off desktops, or collect remains from previous craft projects. Feel free to hit your local thrift stores, library book sales, or anywhere that you might find ephemera.

In the weeks leading up to class, gather the following:

- Book pages (art books, picture books, old textbooks), magazines, greeting cards, junk mail, old journal pages, receipts, ticket stubs, paper scraps (craft, tissue, wrapping), old letters, sheet music, old photographs, stamps, or any paper that inspires you.
- Glue sticks
- Craft knife or a pair of small mending/sewing scissors

IF included in your craft arsenal please bring your favorite colors of the following: ink pads, acrylic craft paints, paint pens, scrap papers, markers, colored pencils
