Supplemental Information and Release

Instructor: John Scroggin

burningjforge@hotmail.com

What to Wear

- Natural fiber clothing: 100% cotton only. No synthetics or fabric blends: synthetics and blends tend to either melt and stick to skin, or burn far too well. Goodwill is a good source for clothing.
- Closed toe shoes with socks (preferably leather, preferably high-topped. Natural fiber Sneakers are sufficient. Avoid synthetic mesh type sneakers).
- Long pants
- Long sleeves are not required, gloves are discouraged.

What to Bring

- Completed and Signed Release of Claims
- Bottled water or Sports Drink
- If this course has a materials fee payable to the instructor please bring either cash or check to the first course meeting.
- Spruill Arts will provide safety glasses for your use during class.
 - If you prefer to purchase your own safety glasses, get Ansi approved impact type safety glasses or goggles. These are available at most home improvement/hardware stores.

John Scroggin
ASSUMPTION OF INHERENT RISK AND CONSENT FORM

Inherently Dangerous Risks

I understand that in the Steel Fabrication – Blacksmithing and Metal Sculpture class activities are potentially dangerous and I am voluntarily participating in these activities with knowledge of the risks of serious injury or even death involved, both expected and unexpected, and hereby assume any and all risks of loss or injury or wrongful death associated with this class and activities.

Initial here: _____

Health and Safety

I am aware that my own behavior can affect my personal safety and the safety of others in the class. I will act according to the safety rules and information presented in the safety orientation. I understand failure to follow safety rules and procedures may result in dismissal from the class.

Initial here: _____

Assumption of Risk and Release of Claims

Knowing the risks described above, I agree, on behalf of myself, my family, heirs, and personal representative(s), to assume all risks and responsibilities surrounding my participation in the class. To the extent permitted by law, I release and indemnify John Scroggin and the Spruill Center from and against any present or future claim, loss or liability for injury to person or property which I may suffer, up to and including death, or for which I may be liable to any other person during my participation at Spruill.
